The people of Breckenridge and the surrounding community were saddened this week by the death of Thomas Crawford, who passed away early Friday morning, June 7th, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Crawford was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alford Crawford, pioneers of Michigan, and was born at Milford, Michigan, Nov. 13, 1837, the same year that Michigan was admitted into the Union as a state. On April 4, 1860, he was married to Mary E. Watson. To this union were born six children, one of whom died in infancy; James Brainerd of Ithaca, Frederick Edward of Chicago, Mrs. Cora Downie of Detroit, Herbert John, deceased, Alford Franklin of Breckenridge.

Mrs. Crawford died April 2, 1884. In 1885 Mr. Crawford came to Gratiot county where he resided since that time. On Dec. 21, 1897, he married Agnes E. Swope of Wheeler. To the latter union a daughter, Marguerite Agnes, was born in Breckenridge, and together with her mother, she and four children of the first union survive. Mr. Crawford also leaves one brother, Walter, who resides in Bay City; four other brothers and two sisters having preceded him into eternity. The funeral was held at the home in Breckenridge, Sunday, June 9th, at 3:00 p. m., Rev. George H.
Coman of Lansing, former pastor here, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. George E. Brown, pastor of the Congregational church here. Burial took place in Breckenridge mause-oleum. Mr. Crawford united with the church in early manhood and has continued in active church work since that time.
